"WOMEN'S RIGHTS"

One-Reel Universal Comedy
Starring BERT ROACH

BERT and Billy, both henpecked husbands receiving considerable abuse from their husky better halves, plot together to have their wives meet in fistic combat, hoping they will beat each other up. Bert, the butler, appoints himself trainer for his wife's opponent, while Billy, his master, manages the ring career of Bert's wife, a laundress.

A fake challenge having been prepared and issued, the two women go into training, trying out their strength and prowess on their unfortunate trainers. The fight takes place before a mixed gallery of fashionables and servants. After a spirited set-to, in which the referee takes most of the punishment, the two women succeed in knocking each other out.
